

Verna Wong
Vice-President, Human Resources
Hawaiian Host

Verna Wong is the Vice President of Human Resources at Hawaiian Host. Verna directs the human resources operations, coordinates with various departments, and ensures that the operations are in alignment with the values, policies, and practices of the company. Verna has over 15 years of experience in professional management and development from various companies located throughout Honolulu. Prior to joining Hawaii Host, Verna worked at many companies across the island including University of Hawaii, Shidler College of Business where she was in charge of graduate career services and development. Verna holds a MBA and Bachelor's of Business Administration, Finance, from the Shidler College of Business. Verna is also a Design Thinking Coach and certified facilitator for Everything Disc. She also serves on SHRM Hawaii Chapter's College Relations for the SHRM Aloha, Student Chapter.